

AMSTERDAM STUDENT RUGBY CLUB ASCRUM IS LOOKING FOR AN ASSISTANT COACH

The Amsterdam student rugby club ASCRUM is looking for an assistant coach starting immediately. Ascrum is the largest student club of The Netherlands, with 5 senior teams and over 120 active senior players. The assistant coach will focus on the wide selection of the first two teams, although assistance in the development of the club is expected as well. Ascrum's 1st team plays for the plate final in the top league and Ascrum's 2nd team is gaining a solid position in the 1st league.

Profile:

- Understands and fits with the unique culture of our student club
- Is able to start in on a short term (there are options for guest coaching sessions also)
- Is able to collaborate and make plans within the vision of a head coach
- Prepare and give training sessions on Tuesday and Thursday evenings for two teams
- Preferably supports the training of other teams and the development of internal trainers
- Preferably holds IRB 3 Coaching level

We offer:

- A large club with great ambition
- Young and talented group of players
- To be discussed compensation
- Options for longer term commitment (i.e. season 18/19)

If you are interested, please send a brief motivational letter and a description of your strengths as a coach.
